

ÉDI_K04 Personal work plan guide for the thesis phase

Course Program annex_2022

In the thesis phase it is necessary to draw up a two-year work plan as a part of the comprehensive examination. It is to be submitted when applying to take the comprehensive examination.

Guide

Data

Name of doctoral student:

Name of advisor:

Name of department:

Course phase and year:

Work plan duration:

Academic progress plan

Subjects to be taken, in semester-breakdown:

Name of subject:

Type of subject (obligatory, optional):

Subject head:

Subject credit value:

Credits/semester/year in total:

Description of subject in the case of external optional subject and exchanging of obligatory subject with external subject:

Personal work plan

Subject, title of research:

Result/objective to be achieved:

Tools to be used: (library research, interviews case study...)

Literature to be used:

Outline of schedule for the production of the study/essay/thesis:

Creative activity (master work progress, design, design competition):

Design of appearance of own publications, planned credits (study, plan, building):

Schedule for planned study trips (in Hungary and abroad):

Cost plan

Main costs of study trips, events, conferences and other material costs with indication of source and date

Master work

Title:

Authorship data:

Short description:

Stage of implementation, and schedule with final deadline:

Knowledge of second foreign language

Name of language:

Method of certification and planned date:

Endorsements

Brief opinion of advisor, declaration relating to acceptance of work plan

Brief opinion of head of department, declaration relating to acceptance of work plan

Date, signature